The story of CE-Connector

Starting a business for people often means finding their unique path in the start-up world, something that can seem a daunting task. So what if we could give them access to smart money, public instruments like financial help, grants, co-working space and public services, as well as expert support, in any sector of choice?

This is why we created a transregional system for building bridges for early stage investments. We started by finding a leading Business Angel who wanted to invest jointly with a group of local and international Investors, in order to provide smart money for start-up growth. We then helped them tap into public instruments in order to maximize opportunities, as well as utilize all possible assets. Finally, we introduced expert support in fields such as ICT, health and environmental technologies, renewable energies, smart cities and more; all, so our clients could receive the most comprehensive market and sector insight available.

Since the beginning of the project we have brought the key ecosystem players together and developed a strategy that enables public-private co-investment in 6 European countries. With our partners from Germany, Poland, Croatia, Slovenia, Hungary and the Czech Republic - every day we strive to build a financial ecosystem that will aid especially young fresh ideas in coming true.

Together we build a stronger and more integrated Europe.
